Country Rural House on 175 Acre Grazing Property in Wauchope 20 mins from Port M

Pasture improved and divided into several paddocks this property is currently utilised for cattle and fodder crops. A large dam supplies water to the farm with bore and spring water available. With the house positioned on the hill, centrally located on the farm with views overlooking the alluvial river flats and countryside Northward to the Hastings River.

Hillview is a 175 acre portion of the original 767 acre Wauchope House property which was settled by Captain Robert Andrew Wauch (1786-1866) the original founder of the town of Wauchope

Now being available to a prospective new owner, Hillview presents as part of the colourful tapestry of the early settlement of Port Macquarie and the Hastings Valley. A unique opportunity exists to combine the nostalgia of our history with a rural lifestyle farm adjacent to the locale of King Creek and the Pacific Coast of Port Macquarie.
