Rural Hideaway on 500 acres on NSW Mid North Coast

The vendor of this property is motivated to sell, and sensible offers are invited.

A 4 bedroom homestead, handcrafted from locally cut hardwood in the mid-1990s by the current owner, sits on the ridgeline.

The home boasts vast valley and mountain views from the wrap-around verandah.

This 205 Hectare property is located inland from Port Macquarie on the NSW Mid North Coast, approximately 1 hour west (60 km) of Wauchope.

With about 20% of the land being cleared, the property currently runs 30 head of cattle. Water is available to stock from Butchers Creek which traverses the property.

A waterfall is situated in the timbered hills with rainforest on the Southern slopes.

Substantial stands of commercial timber are available on the property, with the most recent logging having been carried out in excess of 15 years ago.

Inspections of this property require a 4WD vehicle.

If you're looking for a private, remote hideaway, then please call Drew on 0412 042 421 to arrange a private inspection.
