Family Home on Private Bushland Acres

The owners have designed this home for privacy, yet enjoy bushland views from all areas within the home.

Built within a cleared area of approx 15% of the 124 acres, with high ceilings, large bedrooms, open plan living plus a kitchen with generous bench space and storage, this home is ready for a family to add their own touches.

This is a property that offers an opportunity to live without ever-increasing power bills in a modern open-plan home, located in an area of bushland beauty and with the convenience of the nearby township of Wauchope and the major regional centre of Port Macquarie. Approx 4 hours drive on the M1 from Sydney's North Shore.

Port Macquarie offers daily flights to Sydney and Brisbane and newly introduced route to Melbourne twice a week. Countrylink rail service to Sydney and Brisbane is available via the Wauchope station.

Port Macquarie provides all the facilities of a large regional town including Universities, multiple primary and secondary schooling options, theatres, sporting venues, shopping and beautiful beaches.

Features incl:

- * Stand Alone Solar System - 40 x 300W Panels with 20kwh storage
- * Air Conditioning
- * Combustion Heater
